World Missions Update: 2019 World Camp for Jesus Toronto

November 6, 2019

It started with an e-mail from Sherry Benish of Sherry Benish Ministries. Sherry and her husband Ed are Assemblies of God missionaries at the Asia-Pacific Theological Seminary in Baguio City, Philippines. But before they took that position, they were the vision keepers for the World Camp for Jesus meetings, which began in 2015.

Back then, Sherry found MCM online. She had wanted every continent represented at the World Camp for Jesus Cambodia. She googled Antarctica to find Christian ministries which had been commissioned by the LORD to go there, and MCM popped up. So she telephoned me; we talked and talked and discovered similar desires and callings.

My speaking in Cambodia was accomplished through videos, but in 2017 at the World Camp for Jesus Jerusalem, MCM was there. I spoke on “Spiritual Warfare Lessons Learned from the Frontlines” and also gave a clear Gospel presentation: see the “Glory of the Gospel” by linking here:

Sherry knows I do not go anywhere unless and until I am called by the LORD, commissioned, receive His commandments (what to do and say, where to be, etc.) and commitment as to what He will do. I received this:

Toronto

When you go to Toronto, keep calm. Many will be seeking to argue. Just listen. Get the pulse of what you hear. Simplify your message. Identify key points. I speak through you to My people, to the nations. As you speak, I will work in hearts and minds to bring them to the import of preaching My Gospel. I will convict some. I will encourage and strengthen and confirm others in their calling. I will anoint many with fresh oil. I will lead My people out of darkness.

I WILL be their God; and they WILL be My son.

I had received a commission which we call “Opening the Eyes of the Blind.” This is to go out to the nations. We also have a “Prayer to Open the Eyes of the Blind.” Both are currently on the home page of www.marycraig.org. This call and commission exactly fit with the purpose of the Toronto World Camp, which referenced Isaiah 60:1-3 and Psalm 86:9, 10.

All the nations which You have made will come and worship before You, Lord; they will bring glory to Your name. For You are great and do marvelous deeds. You alone are God. Psalm 86:9, 10.

The Camp’s vision was to have Gentiles and Messianic Jews celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles together. My message, therefore, was “Celebrating Tabernacles Today” and incorporated “Opening the Eyes of the Blind” by speaking on Saul of Tarsus and his encounter with Jesus Christ on the Road to Damascus:

Every believer (Jew and Gentile) can celebrate Tabernacles today by laying hold of truth revealed to Saul of Tarsus (Paul) in his call, commission, commandments from Jesus, and the promise to show him “the Just One.” To see the Power Point, go here: <http://www.marycraig.org/NewsViews/CelebratingTabernaclesOpeningTheEyes.pdf>

There are some photos and videos of the Camp on this public Facebook page: World Camp for Jesus Toronto 2019. Also, here's a link to a video of the entire last service that the host church posted on YouTube:

Sherry and her team have great organizational skills. She is “in tune” with the Holy Spirit, remembering people’s names, changing the program as the Holy Spirit directed her, and manifesting the LORD’s love and grace throughout.

“The team” put together for worship, testimonies, messages, intercessory prayer, and communion came from many nations. I know I’m missing some, but here’s a few: The Philippines, Canada, U.S.A. (California, Arizona, Florida, New Jersey, New York, Maryland, Hawaii), South Korea, Israel, China, India, Jamaica, Eritrea, and many others.

Just some of a few hundred who attended.

Marcia M. giving her testimony

The testimonies magnified the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, saving, healing, delivering, sanctifying, changing lives, and loving one after another through hardships, pride, abuse, identity crises, abandonment issues, loneliness, and deep darkness. Only Jesus Christ saves. These participants were apostles, bishops, prophets, evangelists, pastors, teachers, lay leaders, and those born-out-of-God ones led by the Holy Spirit to be there, to come together to worship the LORD and praise Him for His marvelous deeds.

The Camp was held at four different churches in the Toronto area. Volunteers may have stayed in the background but deserve recognition for all they did to make each Camp service go smoothly. They took care of the sound systems. They served food that was delicious and tended to people's needs with servant hearts, glorifying the Living God in everything they did.

Joanna B., Dr. Craig, Hawaii worship leader, Pastor Sherry Benish, Pastor Tammy Koller

It was a blessed time, and now we shall see the fruit of all that the LORD desires from this Camp gathering. He fulfilled the commitments He gave to me, and now I believe we will see Him opening the eyes of the blind—spiritually, emotionally, and physically, whether to open the eyes of minds to comprehend/understand and/or to open the eyes of hearts to receive all that is in Christ Jesus. Glorifying Him, enjoying Him: that's what it's about.

May you know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings and may you press toward the mark of the high calling of Jesus Christ, Praising the Glory of His Grace,

Mary Craig
